

Transnational Corporations Council of Studies (TNCCS)

TNCCS is a society dedicated to the research and practice of international business, management and economics in relation to transnational corporations, foreign direct investment, institutional innovation and international development. Headquartered at Ottawa, Canada's Capital City, TNCCS has members from 28 countries or regions around the globe. The diversity and global expertise enable to provide various opportunities and service, unique to only TNCCS.

Transnational Corporations Review: TNCCS' Official Journal

- Published by Taylor & Francis Group, top 5 journal publisher in the world
- Released regularly in March, June, September and December since 2009
- Attracted authors, advisers and reviewers from 22 countries and regions
- Distributed abstracts online with emails reaching over 10,000 readership

To be a member if you are:

- ❖ Scholars from business, management, economics and international policy
- ❖ Professionals in transnational corporations and international businesses
- ❖ Senior graduates from international business, management and economics
- ❖ Research analysts in foreign direct investment, institutional innovation and international development

In addition to receiving a complimentary TNCR, the benefits of the TNCCS members include:

- ✚ Connecting to national and international platforms
- ✚ Engaging world-class research collaborations
- ✚ Helping with academic writing for international publishing
- ✚ Linking to international visits and exchanges
- ✚ Providing information on transnational corporations studies
- ✚ Referring to collaborated SSCI-listed journals
- ✚ Serving published articles in the fields based on individual needs
- ✚ Sponsoring researches on international business, management and economics
- ✚ Supporting for international conferences, workshops and seminars
- ✚ And more.....

For more information with application, please write to us at info@tnc-online.org, tncr.special@gmail.com

(Updated: December 20, 2016)